Visitation Hours, Scheduling, and Guidelines
Effective Monday, July 26, 2021

- Both remote and public “On-site” visitation will only be scheduled through the Securus video visitation platform. You will schedule visits through www.videovisitanywhere.com.
- No more than four (4) individuals will be permitted to visit during any on-site video visits.
- Those 18 and over will be required to show a valid photo identification.
- Those under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian (proof must be provided, to include either a birth certificate listing the parent or legal paperwork from a court showing guardianship).
- No personal items will be permitted to be carried into the visitation area (Lockers are available in lobby if needed).
- COVID screening may be completed prior to visit, and the facility recommends following CDC guidelines with regard to masks, social distancing, and any other precautionary measures.
- Proper attire must be worn, to include no sleeveless shirts or tank tops, shorts and/or dresses must extend to at least mid-thigh, and undergarments must not be observable
- Persons on Parole, Probation, or with no contact orders with an inmate are not permitted to visit.
- Visitors exhibiting any signs of illness may be denied visits and instructed to leave the facility.
- Disruptive behavior, arguing, or any conduct that is deemed to be inappropriate will result in visit being abruptly ended or denied.
- Both on-site and remote visits will be twenty (20) minutes in length, based on the scheduled start time for the visit.
- Visitors can schedule visits between the hours of 7:00 A.M. and 10:00 P.M. seven days per week.
