Notice

During the week of January 12, 2026 and the week of January 19, 2026, The Tri-County Regional Jail will be transitioning to a new inmate phone and video visitation service provider and will also be adding some additional inmate services. During the transition period, there may be outages and/or times where services may be down. Information on the new provider will be released soon so please watch for additional details. We apologize in advance for any inconveniences you may experience.
